

cell phones should be banned on commercial flights. Passengers do not listen to safety information as it is, much less announcements if they are talking on phones. It also will be very disturbing for those who want to read or sleep if there are hundreds of phone conversations going on. It will just be a nightmare for all involved. Please, do not let this happen!!